So we do not lose HEART

Though our outer self is wasting away

Our inner self is being renewed day by day.

For this light momentary affliction is preparing for

An eternal weight of GLORY beyond all comparison

As we look not to the things that are seen

For the things that are seen are transient

But the things that are unseen are ETERNAL.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

*This is my body, which will be given up for you.
This is my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant.
It will be shed for you and for all... so that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in memory of me.*

 Masses will be offered June 2018**

LECTIONARY READINGS & REFLECTIONS

Monday, June 11—Sunday, June 17, 2018

MONDAY: Acts 11:21B-26; 12:1-3 Mt 5:1-12
Memorial of St. Barnabas, apostle

St. Barnabas, designated by the Holy Spirit to share the charge and mission of the twelve Apostles, is venerated by the Church as one of them. He played an important part in the first extension of Christianity outside the Jewish world. It was Barnabas who presented St. Paul to the other Apostles when, after his long retreat in Arabia, he came to Jerusalem for the first time after his conversion to submit for Peter's approval the mission to the Gentiles entrusted to him by the Master Himself. Barnabas was Paul's companion and helper on his first missionary journey and returned with him to Jerusalem, but left him when he set out on his second journey and went to Cyprus. The name of St. Barnabas is mentioned in the Canon of the Mass. (catholicculture.org)

TUESDAY: 1 Kgs 17:7-16 Mt 5:13-16

WEDNESDAY: 1 Kgs 18:20-39 Mt 5:17-19
Memorial of St. Anthony of Padua, priest & doctor

St. Anthony was born at Lisbon, Portugal. He became a canon regular and then a Franciscan preaching the Gospel everywhere in Portugal and Italy. Both as a theologian and as a popular preacher he fought vigorously against heresy. His preaching was inspired by the love of God and of souls and had an extraordinary power of conviction; it was filled with the penetrating power of the Bible. Pope Gregory IX, who heard him preach, called him during his lifetime the Arca Testamenti, meaning "the living repository of the Holy Scriptures" and Pope Pius XII, when he proclaimed him a Doctor of the Church, declared that he based all that he said on the texts of the Gospels, and could justly be called the Evangelical Doctor. St. Anthony lived for a time in France, but chiefly in Italy, and died at Padua in 1231 at age 36, with the reputation of great sanctity. From the day of his death innumerable miracles caused the faithful to invoke him as a wonderworker of untiring benevolence. (catholicculture.org)

THURSDAY: 1 Kgs 18:41-46 Mt 5:20-26

FRIDAY: 1 Kgs 19:9A, 11-16 Mt 5:27-32

SATURDAY: 1 Kgs 19:19-21 Mt 5:33-37

SUNDAY: Ez 17:22-24 Mk 4:26-34

Luke 1:57-66, 80: God Means What He Says

Sometimes God has to take drastic action to get our attention. Before John the Baptist was born, Zechariah was visited by an angel and told that his prayers for a son would be answered in a miraculous way. He also said Zechariah's son would prepare Israel for the long hoped-for Savior. One might think that the appearance of an angel should have been enough to convince Zechariah of the truth of the message, but he was still skeptical that what the angel said was possible. He wasn't listening with all his heart, so God shut Zechariah's mouth to make it easier for him to hear and see the truth. When the baby was born, Zechariah demonstrated his obedience in deciding to name the child John, just as the angel had said, and his mouth was opened. Zechariah's first words showered praise on God and told the people around him of God's faithfulness and awesome love. He reminded us that we can always trust God's love and care. Listen for God's voice and remember that all things are possible for God. (Growing in Faith, June 2018)
