Holy Mary,

"It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."

And all the trees of the field shall know that I am the

LORD;

I bring low the high tree,
and make high the low tree,
dry up the green tree,
and make the dry tree flourish.

*I am the lord; I have spoken,
and I will do it."*

Ezekiel 17:24

*This is my body, which will be given up for you.
This is my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant.
It will be shed for you and for all... so that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in memory of me.*

Take A New Look at Mass
 "Mass is the same every week. I don't always get something out of going." Sound familiar? A ritual we know so well can seem predictable or even routine. Consider these gifts you get from attending Mass: Open Your Mind to Something New. Within the Mass are lots of intriguing, mysterious or just plain interesting ideas. Listen during the Scripture readings, homily, or the Eucharistic prayer for something that strikes you & talk with God about it. He'll help open your mind to something new. Help Others Without Leaving Your Seat. We all know people near & far we would like to help. Distances & barriers disappear at Mass. When Jesus becomes present in the Eucharist, the entire Body of Christ is present. So you can pray for anyone you would like to support & the entire Body prays with you. Make a Change. Find at least one idea within the Mass that makes sense & seems possible & put in into practice. One new idea can change your life. (Growing in Faith, June 2018)

LECTIONARY READINGS & REFLECTIONS

Monday, June 18—Sunday, June 24, 2018

MONDAY: 1 Kgs 21:1-16 Mt 5:38-42

TUESDAY: 1 Kgs 21:17-29 Mt 5:43-48

Optional Memorial of St. Romuald, abbot

St. Romuald was born in Ravenna of a noble family. Founder of the Camaldolese monks—one of the Italian branches of the Benedictines—in which the eremitical life is combined with life in community. He died in 1027, after a life of prayer & rigorous penance. In the Extraordinary Form his feast is celebrated on February 9.

(catholicculture.org)

WEDNESDAY: 2 Kgs 2:1, 6-14 Mt 6:1-6, 16-18

THURSDAY: Sir 48:1-14 Mt 6:7-15

Memorial of St. Aloysius Gonzaga, confessor

St. Aloysius Gonzaga's outstanding quality was his radiant purity & the Church praises this perfect innocence with the words, "Thou has made him little less than the angels." He was baptized in the womb, because his life was in danger, & he made a vow of chastity at the age of nine. When he was sixteen he joined the Society of Jesus & died at the age of twenty-three in 1591 as a result of his devoted nursing of the plague-stricken. (catholicculture.org)

FRIDAY: 2 Kgs 11:1-4, 9-18, 20 Mt 6:19-23

Optional Memorial of St. Paulinus of Nola, bishop & confessor; Optional Memorial of Sts. John Fisher, bishop & martyr & Thomas More, martyr

St. Thomas More was born in London, England & was Chancellor of King Henry VIII. As a family man & a public servant, his life was a rare synthesis of human sensitivity & Christian wisdom.

—St. John Fisher studied Theology in Cambridge (England) & became Bishop of Rochester. His friend, Thomas More, wrote of him, 'I reckon in this realm no one man, in wisdom, learning & long approved virtue together, meet to be matched & compared with him.' He & his friend St. Thomas More gave up their lives in testimony to the unity of the Church & to the indissolubility of Marriage. —St. Paulinus was born of a patrician Roman family at Bordeaux. He was successively prefect, senator & consul. His wife, wishing to consecrate herself to God, gave up rank & riches; he followed her example & went to live an austere hermit's life at Nola in Italy. There he became a priest & then bishop of the city, & gave his people not only an example of virtue but also wise guidance during the ravages & calamities of the Gothic invasion. He died in 431, aged 78, & was buried at Nola near the tomb of St. Felix. (catholicculture.org)

SATURDAY: 2 Chr 24:17-25 Mt 6:24-34

SUNDAY: Is 49:1-6 Lk 1:57-66,80

Solemnity of the Birth of St. John the Baptist

This feast, a segment of Advent in Ordinary Time, makes us aware of the wonderful inner relationship between the sacred mysteries; we are still in the midst of one Church year & already a bridge is being erected to the coming year of grace. Ordinarily the Church observes the day of a saint's death as his feast, as that day marks his entrance into heaven. There are two notable exceptions, the birthdays of Blessed Mary & of St. John the Baptist. All other persons were stained with original sin at birth, hence, were displeasing to God. But Mary, already in the first moment of her existence, was free from original sin, & John was cleansed of original sin in the womb of his mother. This is the dogmatic justification for today's feast. (catholicculture.org)
