*Hail Mary,
Full of Grace!
Holy Mary,
Mother of God!*

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted."

ONE MINUTE MEDITATIONS

Discipleship: Disciples aren't just 12 men chosen by Christ a long time ago. A disciple is one who makes Christ the center of his or her life. "Make room therefore for Christ, and refuse entrance to all others. When you have Christ, you are rich and have need of (nothing) else." Thomas Á Kempis (Growing in Faith, July 2018)

LECTIONARY READINGS & REFLECTIONS

Monday, July 30—Sunday, August 5, 2018

MONDAY: Jer 13:1-11 Mt 13:31-35
Opt. Memorial of St. Peter Chrysologus, bishop & doctor
St. Peter Chrysologus ("the man of golden speech") earned the title of Doctor of the Church for his eloquent sermons, of which some two hundred remain. Made Archbishop of Ravenna by miraculous intervention of St. Peter in 433, he rooted out all remaining traces of paganism, as well as a number of abuses among the Christians. In his sermons he strongly urged frequent Communion. He is supposed to have given us the saying: "He who wants to laugh with the devil cannot rejoice with Christ." St. Peter died about the year 450 in his native city of Imola. (catholicculture.org)

TUESDAY: Jer 14:17-22 Mt 13:36-43
Memorial of St. Ignatius of Loyola, priest
In the year 1521 a cannon ball fractured the left leg of Captain Ignatius Loyola, the future founder of the Jesuits. While he was convalescing, Ignatius read about Christ and His saints and thus turned wholly to God. He then undertook to equip himself for Christ's service by acquiring a good classical and theological education. The members of the Society of Jesus became the shock troops of the Church in the battle against the spread of Protestantism in Europe, as well as one of the greatest foreign mission organizations that the world has known. Ignatius died on July 31, 1556. (catholicculture.org)

WEDNESDAY: Jer 15:10, 16-21 Mt 13:44-46
Memorial of St. Alphonsus Liguori, bishop & doctor
St. Alphonsus de Liguori was a great preacher of the Gospel to the poor. His charity and apostolic spirit led him to found the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer to carry on this work. He sent his Redemptorists, as our Lord did the Apostles, into the countryside and the market towns and villages, to announce the Kingdom of God. He became Bishop of Sant' Agata dei Goti, near Naples, and died at the age of ninety, in 1787. For his great works on Moral Theology he has been declared a Doctor of the Church. (catholicculture.org)

THURSDAY: Jer 18:1-6 Mt 13:47-53
Optional Memorial of St. Eusebius of Vercelli, bishop
Optional Memorial of Saint Peter Julian Eymard, priest
Born in La Mure, France, Saint Peter became a parish priest in 1834 and joined the Marists five years later. He fostered Eucharistic adoration throughout his life and founded a religious order of priest-adorers of the Holy Eucharist who came to be known as the Priests of the Blessed Sacrament.
St. Eusebius was a Roman priest of the fourth century. According to the acts relating his martyrdom he was condemned by Constantius, the Arian Emperor, to be starved to death in a room in his own house. He was buried in the cemetery of St. Calixtus. His cult has always enjoyed special favor in Rome and his house was transformed into a church. (catholicculture.org)

"Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more."

SATURDAY: Jer 26:11-16, 24 Mt 14:1-12

Memorial of St. John Vianney, priest
St. John Baptist Mary Vianney (1786-1859) was born in Dardilly and died in Ars, France. Although his talents were limited and his education meager, he was ordained a priest in 1815. After three years at Ecully, he was appointed parish priest of Ars. Here he spent almost forty-two years of his life, devoting himself to prayer, mortification, and pastoral works. His success in directing souls made him known throughout the Christian world. Men of all ranks and conditions of life sought his guidance and advice. He was beatified by Pope St. Pius X, himself once a parish priest, and canonized by Pope Pius XI. (catholicculture.org)
