Our seminarian of the week is
MICHAEL VILLAVICENCIO
We pray that he continues to grow closer to Christ.

Our Youth Group is going to the Steubenville Conference in Arizona this week! It is a huge gathering of Catholic highschoolers where many encounter with Lord for the first time.

Please keep us in your prayers.

In many ways, Bonaventure remained a simple man of faith and holiness; his life and administration governed by prayer and reflection. Legends have it that when the papal legates came to give him his cardinal's hat, they found him washing dishes. He is said to have asked them to hang the hat on a tree until he finished and could dry his hands. Legend also states that he drew attention to a woman hanging her laundry and commented to his fellow clergymen that, in all probability, the woman exceeded all of them in holiness due to her simple faith. Unlike them, he reasoned, she was not burdened by sophisticated learning and the trappings of office.
